

Donna E. Stewart, CM, MD, FRCPC

Dr. Donna Stewart is the Inaugural Chair of Women's Health at University Health Network and University of Toronto. She is a University Professor at University of Toronto and is appointed in the Faculty of Medicine in the Departments of Psychiatry, Obstetrics/Gynecology, Medicine, Anaesthesia, Family and Community Medicine, and Surgery. She is a Senior Scientist at Toronto General Research Institute and her research interests are in women's health, women's health education, women's mental health, interpersonal violence, resilience, psychological aspects of reproductive health, psychological reaction to physical illness and international health. She is the recipient of over 100 peer-reviewed scientific research grants and has published over 300 scientific articles in peer-reviewed journals and 5 books. She is a recent Institutional Advisory Board Member of Canadian Institutes for Health Research Institute of Gender and Health, the past Deputy Editor and Board member of the American Psychiatric Publishing Inc. and a member of the editorial board of 10 medical journals. She is Past President of the North American Society for Psychosocial Obstetrics and Gynecology and the International Association for Women's Mental Health. Dr Stewart has made numerous presentations to local, provincial, federal and international government agencies responsible for developing policy, service and research on women's health. She has won numerous awards for research and leadership and is an advisor on women's health to the World Health Organization. She is past co-Chair of the World Psychiatric Association Review Committee, past-Chair of the Section of Women's Mental Health, and a current member of the Board and the Zone 1 Representative. She is a Distinguished Fellow of the American and Canadian Psychiatric Associations.